

President's Message

Dear Friends,

Last week, we concluded the Annual General Meeting for 2018-19. I wish the newly-elected team my heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

I am glad to announce the inauguration of the third Ananda Yaan Centre at Dr. E. Moses Road.

It's the season to be jolly and spread smiles across. Let us share gifts of happiness and love with others this Christmas.

I thank the Rotarians who hosted the Christmas Brunch and also all those who attended and made the fellowship meeting a joyous one. Thank you to the entire team for the wonderful arrangements. Detailed coverage will follow in the next Bulletin.

The Club organised a trip to Odisha from December 3 to 8, 2018, last month. Members enjoyed a wondrous Fellowship. Detailed coverage will follow in the next Bulletin.

We now step into 2019. Let us celebrate as Rotarians; come, join us for our New Year fellowship which will be held on January 7, 2019. Venue to be announced.

Please note our next regular meeting will be on January 8, 2019. There is no meeting on December 25, 2018 as it is a bank holiday. The meeting of January 1, 2019, has been shifted to the Fellowship meeting on January 7, 2019.

See you all in the New Year. Have a Happy Christmas and a blissful New Year!

Thank You

Rtn. Vijay Jatia,
President

RIPE Mark Maloney writes back

Dear Club President Vijay Jatia,

Many thanks to you and the Rotary Club of Bombay for your warm hospitality last month during our trip to Mumbai. It was wonderful to meet with local Rotarians and learn about the inspiring activities they are organising!

We also especially appreciate the care and attention you took in arranging for our stay – it was truly amazing to reside in the iconic Taj Mahal Palace Hotel. Gay and I were very honoured to be a part of the inauguration of the Illumination project for the Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Vastu Sangrahalaya Museum. Such an inspirational event!

I'd like to also acknowledge your's and the club's efforts in organising the AKS recognition dinner and the Race for Humanity. Thanks to all for the hard work and dedication that was put into each.

I look forward to when our paths may cross again and wish you all the best in your future Rotary endeavours.

Kindest regards,
Mark

Third Ananda Yaan centre opens at Dr. E. Moses Road

The Elder Care Committee is proud to share that a third centre of Ananda Yaan was inaugurated at the Panchsheel Cooperative Society at Dr. E. Moses road on December 10. This centre will be functional from 11 am to 1 pm daily.

The inaugural function and snacks were organised by our project partners Dignity Foundation. The event was attended by 150 people.

Programme Director Rtn. Madhusudan Daga conducted the ceremonial opening joined by Chairman PP Rtn. Paul George, Dr. Sheilu Shreenivasan,

Founder President of Dignity Foundation and the Corporator of Worli, Shri Datta Ram. Other committee members, Rtn. Ptn. Ekta Shah, Volunteer Roma Agrawal and trustees of Dignity Foundation Rtn. Pranay Vakil and Gopal Shreenivasan joined in the celebrations.

Members of other Ananda Yaan centres came together to put up a wonderful show with colourful dances, singing joyfully, and sharing their personal experiences to showcase their takeaway from this initiative. This encouraged the new members to look forward to fun and learning through the coming year.

It was heartening to see elders singing "Yeh dosti hum nahin chhodenge". The bond of friendship created at the Byculla centre last year was visible and being celebrated.

Rtn. Madhusudan Daga and PP Rtn. Paul George appreciated their performance in their vote of thanks. Special mention was made of Bhavna and Dilip without whose relentless effort and presence all this would not have been achieved. They announced that new centre will give be given many more opportunities to look forward to, in the years to come, through the Rotary Club of Bombay. Shri Datta Ram, Corporator of Worli, was very appreciative of the project and thanked the Rotary Club of Bombay, adding that he would support this initiative fully.

Everyone present remembered the one person who could not attend: IPP Rtn. Ramesh Narayan. It was his great idea and able leadership that led to the opening of the initial two daycare centres and which has now seen the third one already. The aim is to keep growing as the cause is a worthy one.

Secret Santa visits new Ananda Yaan centre

An anonymous donor organised a full-day outing for members of the Dr. E. Moses Road Ananda Yaan Centre on December 8. Around 50 senior citizens had desired to visit Vajreshwari. The excited elders came all dressed to board the bus and create some memories together.

This turned out to be a great bonding trip for them and they now look forward to meeting at the centre every day. They visited the Ganesh Puri Nityanand Maharaj Samadhi and Vajreshwari Mandir.

This area is known for its hot springs and the seniors took a dip and enjoyed the hot water dip on a wintry morning.

After this, they had a lavish lunch organised by the donor at Jalaram Ram Ashram. On way the back, the group stopped at Prati Shirdi Sai Baba Mandir Sai Dham to pay homage to the deity.

They ended the picnic with snacks and evening tea on their way back.

Christie's In-Camera evening at the Kanorias'

Vandana and Ajay Kanoria generously hosted an intimate gathering of Rotarians and spouses at their beautiful residence on the December 4, 2018. The speaker was Nishad Avari, Specialist and Head of Sale for South Asian Modern + Contemporary Art at Christie's in New York, USA.

In May 2018, Christie's had the privilege of handling the Rockefeller Auction, which comprised some of the most significant charity auctions in the history of the art market. Unprecedented in terms of the volume and quality of lots, the extent of the displays, logistics and operations, the number of viewers and bidders globally, and the final amount raised for the earmarked charities, the six auctions held over three days were a landmark event not just in the history of the market, but in that of collecting and philanthropy as well.

The top prices of the series included Picasso's Fillette à la corbeille fleurie, which realised US$ 115,000,000; Monet's Nymphéas en fleur, which sold for a record US$ 84,687,500, and Matisse's Odalisque couchée aux magnolias, which was bought for US$ 80,750,000, another artist auction record.

Rtn. Jagdish Malkani, Rtn. Anil Goyel, Rtn. Tara Deshpande, Rtn. Peter Born, President Vijay Jatia and PP Rtn. (Dr.) Mukesh Batra, et al

Rtn. Pradeep Chinai, Rtn. Ritu Prakash Desai, Rtn. Rahil Shah and Rtn. Ptn. Vasuda Shah and Rtn. Jimmy Pochkhanawalla

Rtn. Tara Deshpande, PP Rtn. (Dr.) Mukesh Batra, Rtn. Peter Born and Rtn. Ptn. Malti Jain

The Estate's proceeds from the most significant charitable auction in history will be directed to a dozen philanthropies Peggy and David Rockefeller supported during their lifetimes, for the benefit of continuing scientific research, higher education, support for the arts, sustainable economic development, and land conservation initiatives, among others.

Nishad Avari's talk was interesting and informative. He showed slides of several items sold at the week-long auction including paintings, crockery, cutlery, duck and swan decoys in wood, furniture and silver. He spoke with knowledge and passion. The evening culminated in a delicious homemade dinner by Vandana Kanoria. It was truly a delightful evening.

Highlights of the Christie's auction in NY earlier this year

A large Chinese Export 'tobacco leaf' assembled dinner service, Qianlong period, circa 1775. Sold for $1,152,500 on 9 May 2018 at Christie's in New York — a new auction record for a dinner service

An English wicker picnic hamper, retailed by Asprey & Company, circa 1986. Sold for $212,500 on 10 May 2018 at Christie's in New York

David Rockefeller's collection of duck decoys was a huge draw for collectors and this Whistling Swan by John Haynes Williams (1857-1937), Cedar Island, Virginia, circa 1910 sold for $348,500

Project Night Study Centre

The Night Study Centres provide students with a quiet and secure environment to study in, which they are unable to get at home.

At the centres, we provide books, evening snacks and tutors (to guide students with homework). These centres are set up near their homes and localities. Apart from the NSC classes, an annual get-together is organised for the students. Students get the opportunity to interact with other students of different backgrounds and with different mind sets. It also gives them the chance to showcase their talent and skill.

Annual Christmas Carnival ahead

Where does Santa live? In each one of us, if we have the right spirit. Meet our own Santa Claus with a heart of gold!

Rtn. Suresh Agarwal, as Vice Chairman of Entertainment Committee of CCI Club, is organising a mega Christmas Carnival at CCI Club lawns.

He has been doing this for the last seven years and is back again this year by popular demand. This will be his eighth year hosting this carnival.

The carnival will be from December 21st to 23rd, 2018, at the CCI club lawns.

Over these three days, 2,000 underprivileged children from different NGOs registered through Rotarians will get a chance to celebrate Christmas in its festive spirit.

These NGOs are registered with different Rotary clubs. The Rotary Club of Bombay is thankful to Rtn. Suresh Agarwal for the opportunity to 1,200 plus children and teachers under its Bhavishya Yaan, Lighthouse project and Night Study Centre programmes.

Rtn. Suresh Agarwal will gift each child a school bag with pencil box, books, tiffin, water bottle and crayons. Plenty of thrills, food and entertainment have been organised for the kids too.

The total cost of this generosity is over Rs 10 lakh. All Rotarians are welcome to meet and greet the kids on any of these days, between 11 am and 2.30 pm.

Next week: Prof. Man Mohan Sharma

Professor Man Mohan Sharma is amongst the world's foremost experts in chemical engineering. He has dedicated his life to the fields of chemical science, engineering and technology. A celebrated consultant who has advised some of the top companies in the world including Dow, DuPont, Reliance and Sabic, Prof. Sharma is an institution himself.

Prof. Man Mohan Sharma
