Mr. Paul Markle, partner, E.H. Markle & Company, speaks about Wills and Succession.

Business families commonly spend 1-2% of the net worth to set up a trust or estate plan. While many people give their time and energy to support their family's business, they often neglect to plan for the future. This session will discuss the importance of estate planning, which can range from simple to complex, and how to get started.

How often does it happen that a Will that was drafted 10 years ago is no longer valid? Will it still be valid?
